COUTURE DIVAS AZAÏDÉ

A SOLO EXHIBITION
20 - 30 MARCH 2023

About The Exhibition

Couture Divas, a two-year project by Azaïdé, showcases vibrant and expressive pieces that celebrate independent and strong women in diverse settings. The collection highlights the heritage of various patterns, seamlessly blending vintage and modern codes into authentic traditional wear.

Azaïdé draws inspiration from her grandmother, who has been a profound influence on the artist's life. Her grandmother's stories about advocating for women's rights in North Africa left a lasting impression on Azaïdé, who views her as a role model. The artist's name is also derived from her grandmother's travels to Iran in the '80s, where she discovered the Persian word 'Azadeh', which translates to 'free-minded'. This name aptly reflects Azaïdé's artistic inspirations and her mission to promote emancipation and liberation through her Couture Divas collection.

"It is important to highlight the beauty and courage of every woman. Through my work, I pay a tribute to all of them. Being a woman, a mum and an artist may be challenging, but Dubai has been great for honoring female artists and highlighting their work by having a proactive policy when it comes to women's rights," said Azaïdé on her collection.

Founder of Fann À Porter, Ghada Kunash, stated, "It brings us great pleasure to showcase Azaïdé's collection during Women's History Month, as we are delighted to support and celebrate her work, which beautifully preserves Arab heritage and celebrates women everywhere."

Azaïdé's creative process is fascinating. She begins by assembling old black and white photographs with her own photographs and envisions a story about the women she portrays in the image. Through her art, she empowers women to shatter boundaries and explore their full potential by creating new narratives. Azaïdé incorporates modern elements from pop culture to ensure that everyone can relate to her pieces.

Astrid Lesuisse exhibition collaborator and curator of Astrid Art expressed her excitement about the upcoming pop-up exhibition, stating, "It has been an absolute honor to be part of the Couture Divas project that tells a story of strength and confidence, highlighting the beauty and determination of women in creating a more balanced world. Azaïdé's work is a celebration of Arab heritage, showcasing her unique interpretation of traditional Arab attire and dress with a modern twist that empowers and encourages global cross-cultural dialogue, inspiring us all."

About The Artist

Azaïdé, a multi-faceted artist with French, Algerian, and Spanish heritage, who was raised in Madagascar, has been calling Dubai her home for the past eight years. Having developed a deep-seated passion for art during her upbringing, she ventured into the fashion industry in China before eventually settling in Dubai in 2015. Azaïdé's insatiable appetite for diverse patterns and colors culminated in a fusion of retro-pop-art-revolutionary, which she artfully captures through her unique approach to photography, fashion, and pop culture.

Driven by her admiration for cultural diversity, Azaïdé's oeuvre aims to spark an intercultural dialogue, using a combination of vintage and vogue, tradition and innovation, art, and fashion. Through her intricate and time-consuming hand-embroidery process, she showcases women's strength and independence in various settings, showcasing patterns' heritage in her personal interpretation of traditional Arab attire infused with modern elements. Her artistic vision expertly fuses vintage and contemporary codes, resulting in a captivating visual experience.
