

VOID AND FORM

A SOLO EXHIBITION BY
BADER MAHASNEH

5 JULY - 30 AUGUST 2023

About The Exhibition

Inspired by studies of philosophies and the intricacies of human existence, Mahasneh delves into the complex nature of human existence in his art. His body of work speaks of the enigmatic “void,” the interplay between mankind and machinery, and the intricate connection between destruction and creation, often referred to as the “building of form.”

Mahasneh’s recent artistic journey has led him to translate the intricate three-dimensional densities of painting into the realm of sculpture. Embracing the belief that sculptural expression possesses a commanding presence, Mahasneh asserts that while painting offers an illusion, sculpture presents an existence.

Years of dedicated research into Jordan’s rich and largely unexplored geology have led him to source materials imbued with historical significance. Using diamond-edged blades, Mahasneh meticulously sculpts his artwork, infusing technical brilliance with artistic vision. The result is a series of sculptures entitled “Chaos,” carved from the very substance that birthed the Earth and Heavens. Despite their origins, these sculptures evoke a sense of peace, beauty, and poetic tranquility.

Mahasneh’s photographic compositions embody a complex technique where the model seamlessly merges with the environment. Through expert use of the camera and lighting, this remarkable effect is achieved in a single shot and in a single layer.

The exhibition will run 5 July to 30 August at Fann À Porter Dubai, gallery space at The Workshop Dubai.
