A Moment of Peace by Ahmad Kasha

The young Syrian painter's first exhibition, 'A Moment of Peace' showcases Kasha's works created over a period of five years. Surrounded by art since he was kid, Kasha's father is renowned Syrian sculptor Jamil Kasha. The works in this collection are inspired by what Kasha witnessed in 2011 – war, bloodshed and havoc in his country. These works represent his longing and hopes for a moment of peace and his silent testimony to what he saw.
