Location: Fann À Porter

Dates: April 19 - May 24, 2025

The Syrian artist Mayar Obeido will be having his second solo exhibition at Fann À Porter, displaying his visually intense charcoal and ink studies. At times featuring scraps of political newspaper clippings, Obeido's works, often revealing a creature-like character, tell a story of anger, disruption, and reformation. "These artworks have an expressive, cathartic quality to them that speaks to the emotions many of us are experiencing currently," said the gallery's owner, Ghada Kunash, in a statement.
